

Asylum Applications & Decisions | Colombia 2019 - 2024

Note: Under certain circumstances, one person may have more than one application

What are the main destinations for Forcibly Displaced People?

Top Destination Countries | as of 2024 for population from Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of)

Source: UNHCR Population Statistics Database. Forced Displacement includes Refugees, Asylum-seekers and Other in Need of International Protection.

Colombia: Increases and Decreases in Population Groups | 2023-2024

Number of people and percentage

Key Figures for Colombia as of 2024

A total of 10,649,747 people, decreasing by 4.9% compared to the previous year

29,305 Asylum-seekers

807,700 Host community

7,031,498 Internally displaced persons

2,779,604 Other people in need of international protection

329 Others of concern to UNHCR

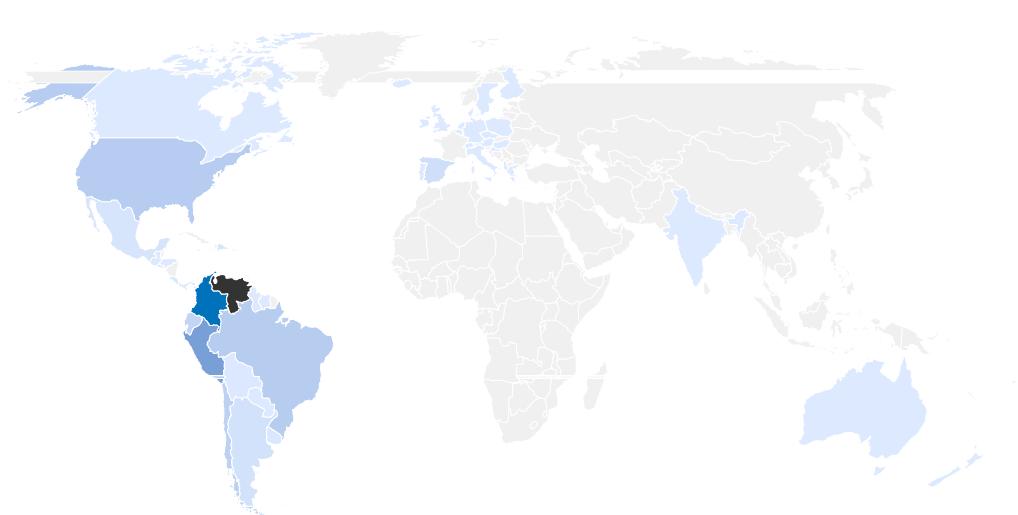

1,306 Refugees

5 Stateless people

Where are people from Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of)?

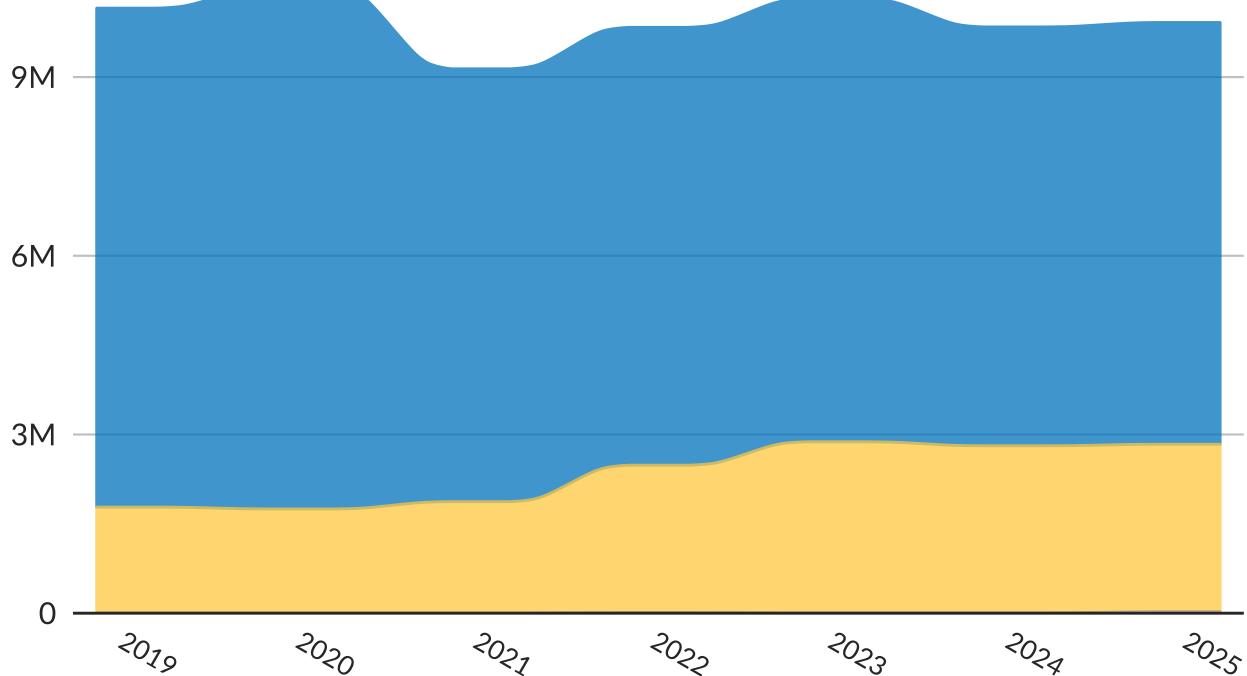

Destination countries of Refugees, Asylum-seekers, Other people in need of international protection from Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) as of 2024

Source: UNHCR.org/refugee-statistics. Origin country highlighted in dark grey.

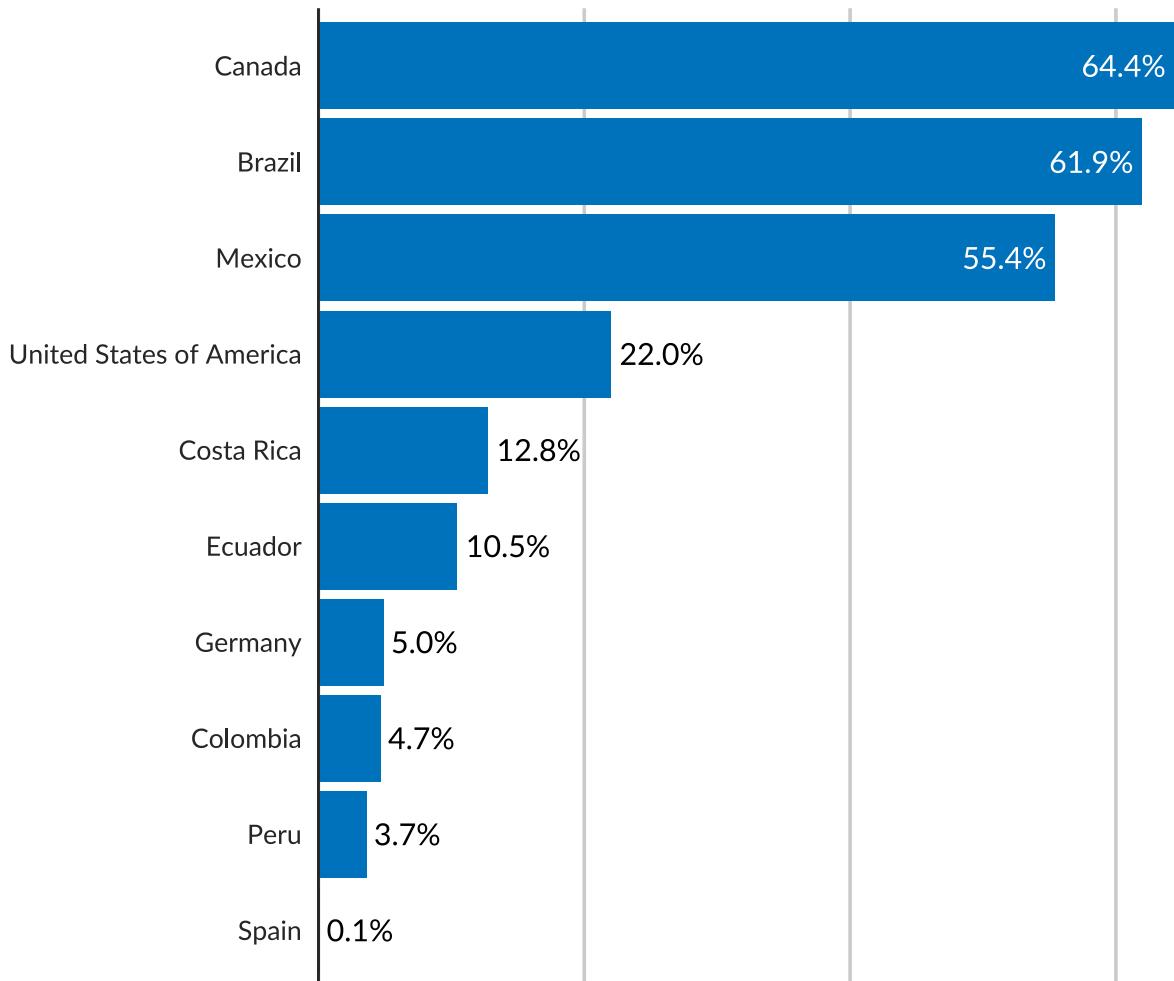

Colombia: Evolution of Forcibly Displaced Population Origin

Number of people (thousand)

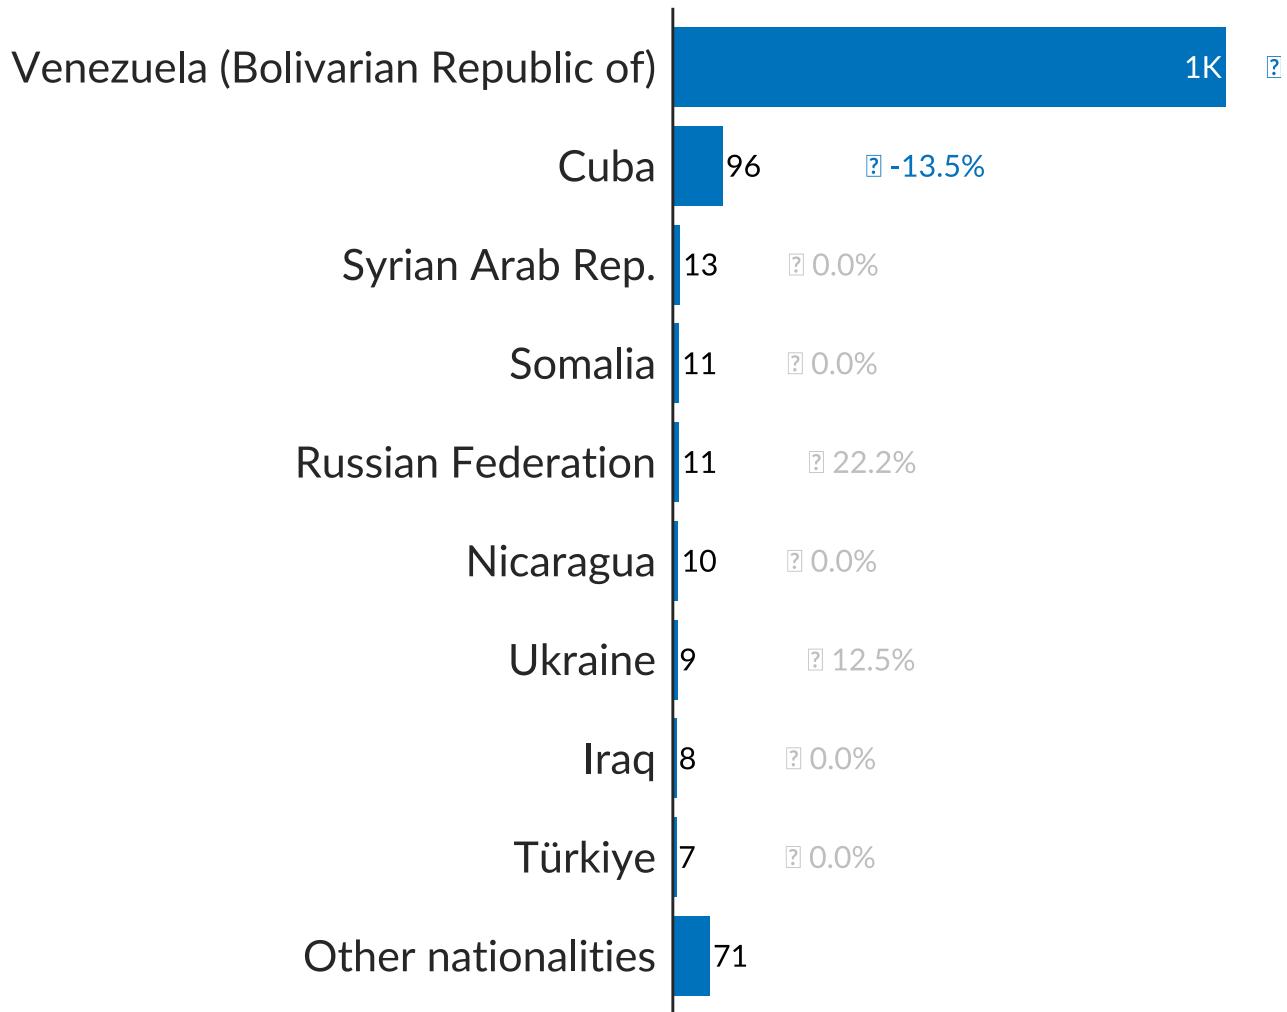

Refugee Recognition Rate | 2024 for Nationals from Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of)

For top 10 Countries of Asylum ordered by Total Decision (independently of the outcome)

Colombia: Refugees | 2024

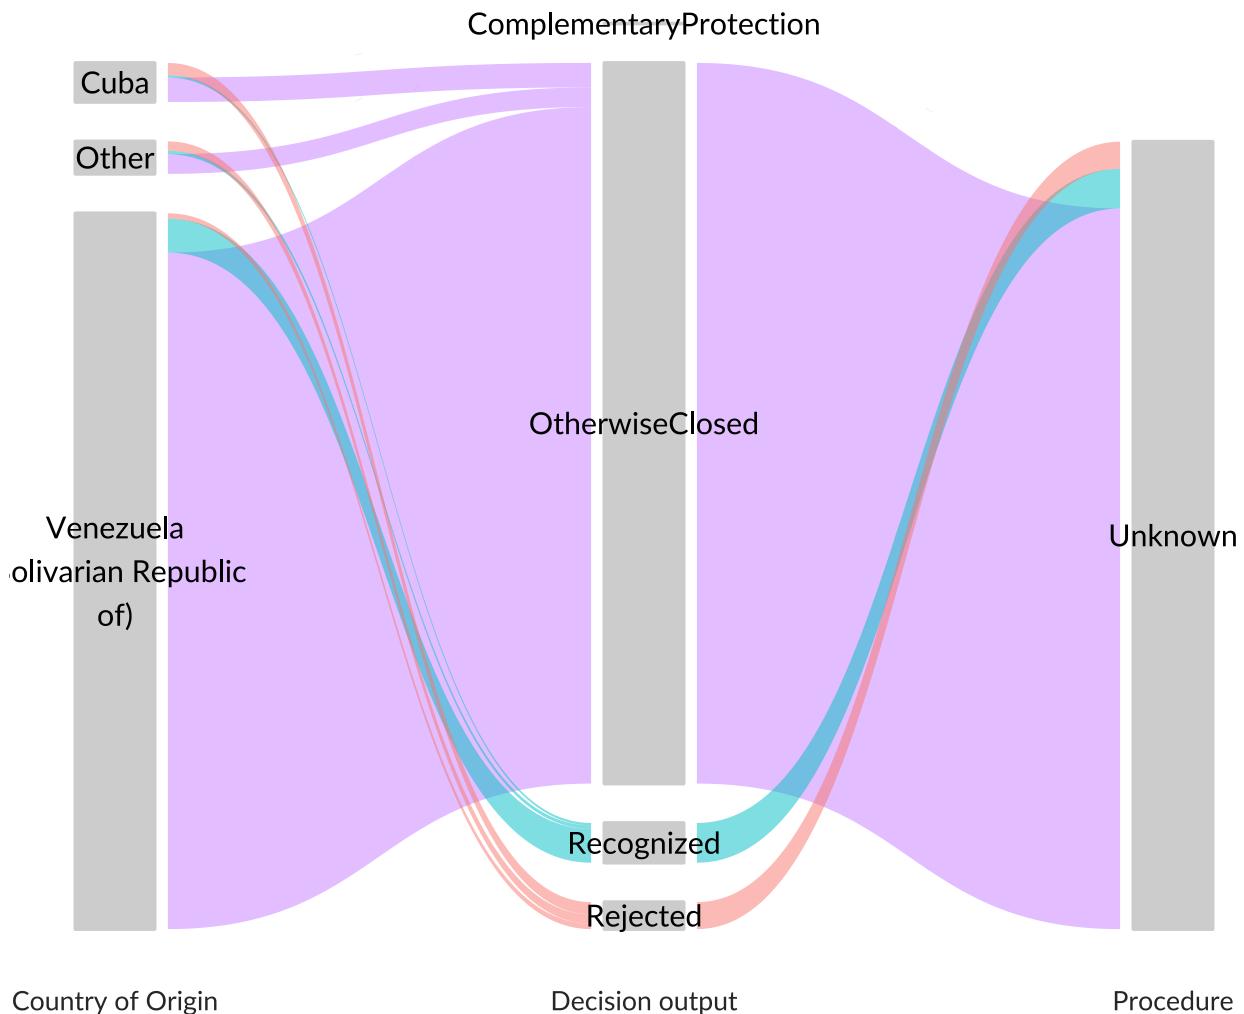

Top 9 Countries of Origin

Source: UNHCR.org/refugee-statistics

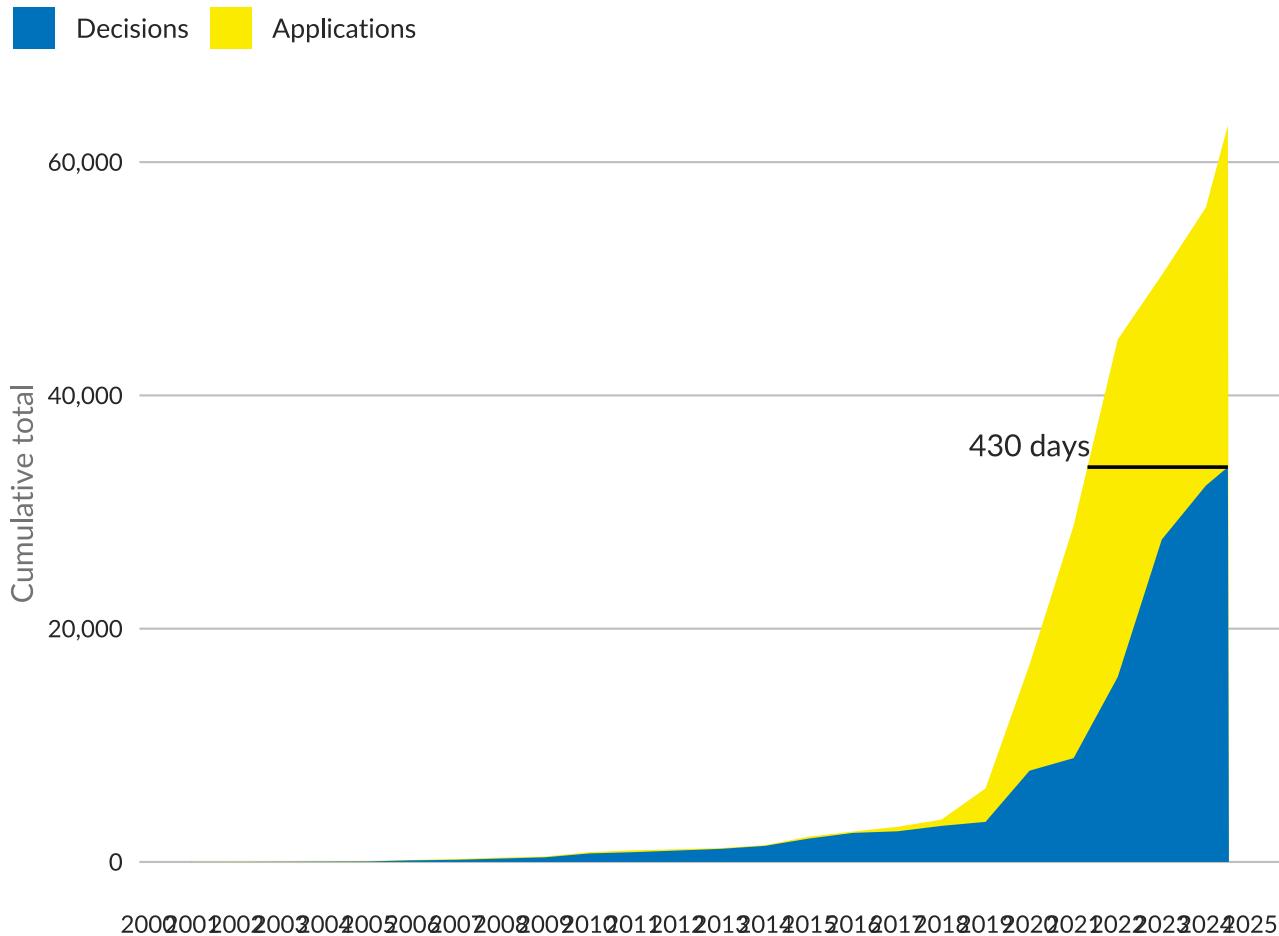

Refugee Status Determination Decisions

Colombia, 33,853 decisions recorded in 2024

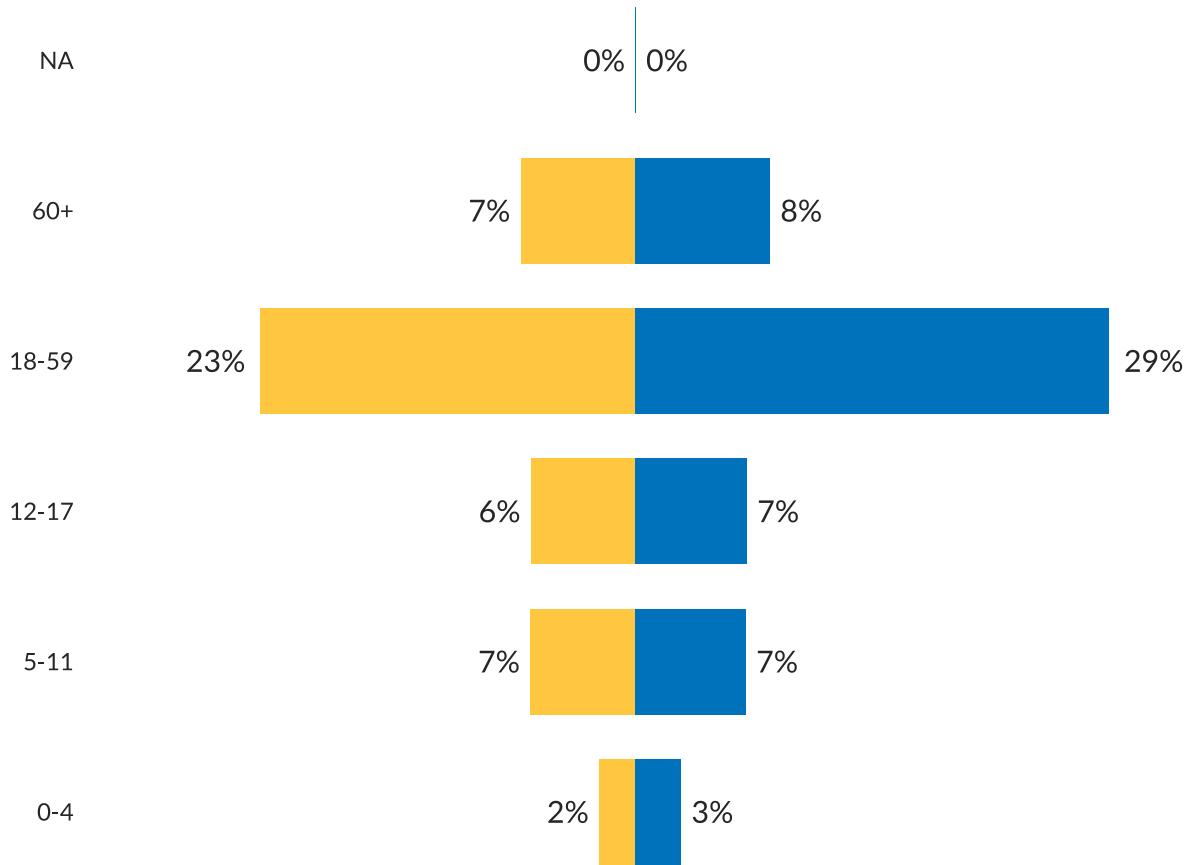

Average Processing Time from Asylum Registration to First Instance Decision

In Colombia, comparative cumulative applications and decisions with gap measured in days as of 2024

Population Pyramid for REF, ASY, IDP, OIP, STA and OOC | Colombia

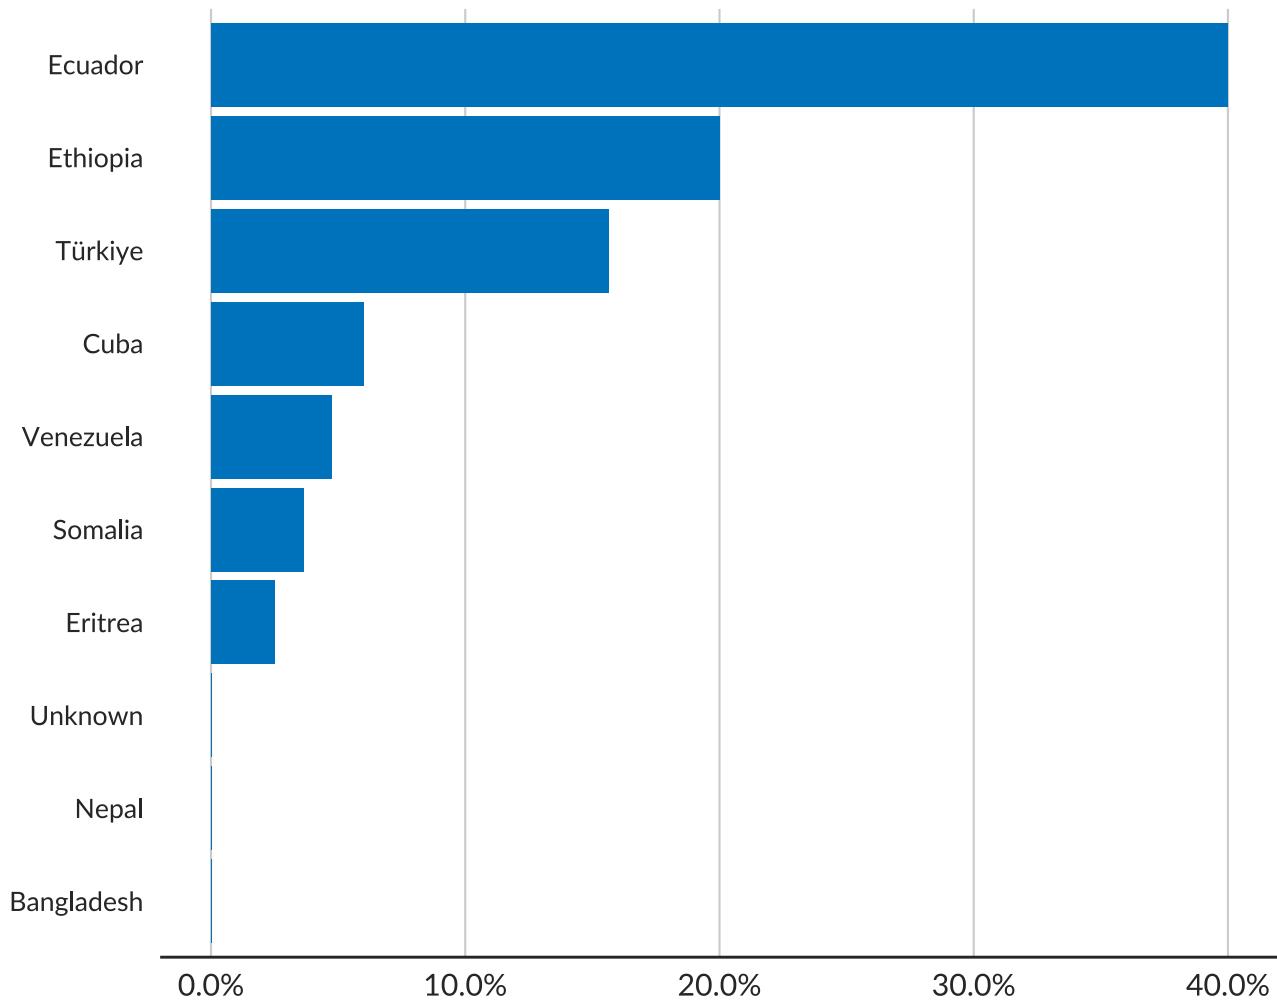

As of 2024, gender disaggregation is available for 100% of the 119,250,346 individuals in Colombia

Note: figures do not add up to 100 per cent due to rounding Source: UNHCR.org/refugee-statistics.

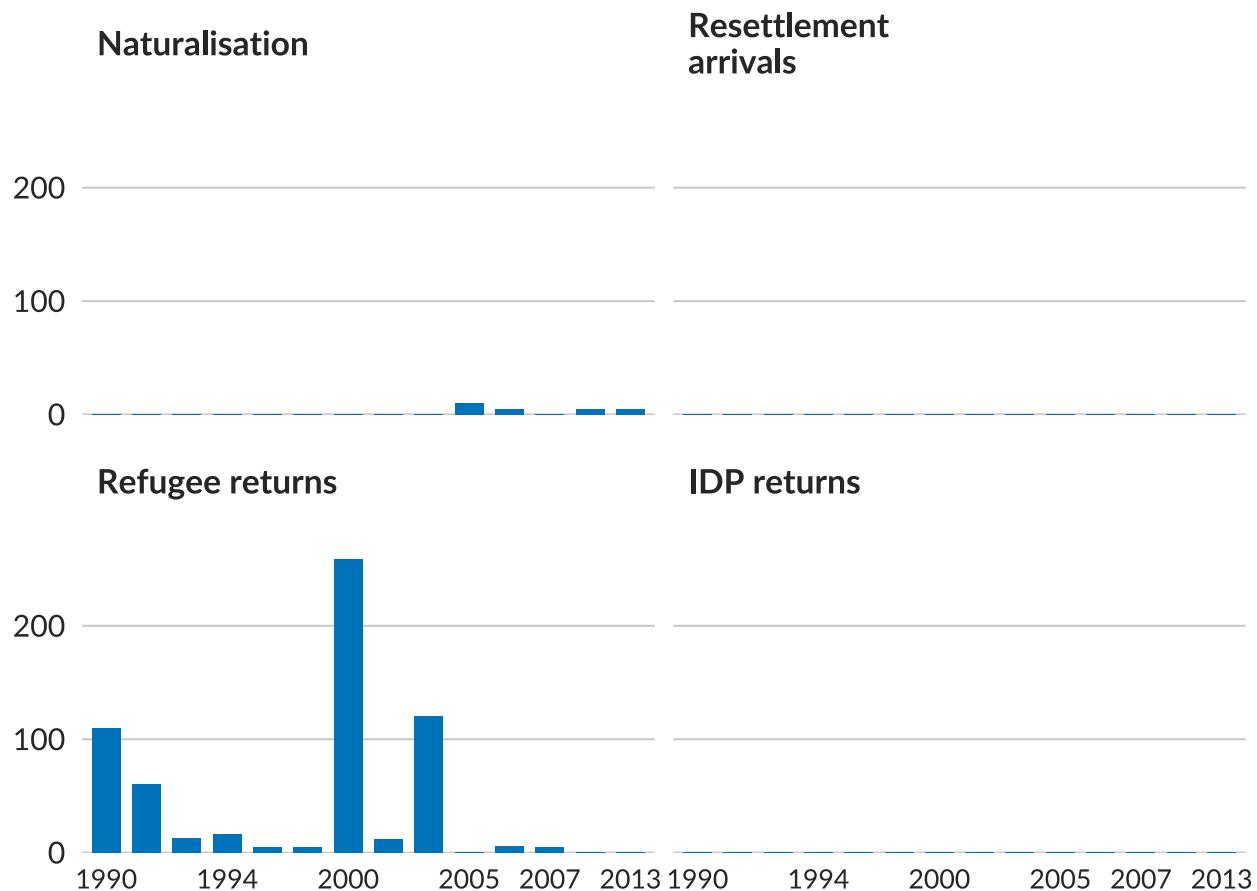

Refugee Recognition Rate | 2024 in Colombia

For top 10 Countries of Origin ordered by Total Decision (independently of the outcome)

What are the trends in terms of Solutions?

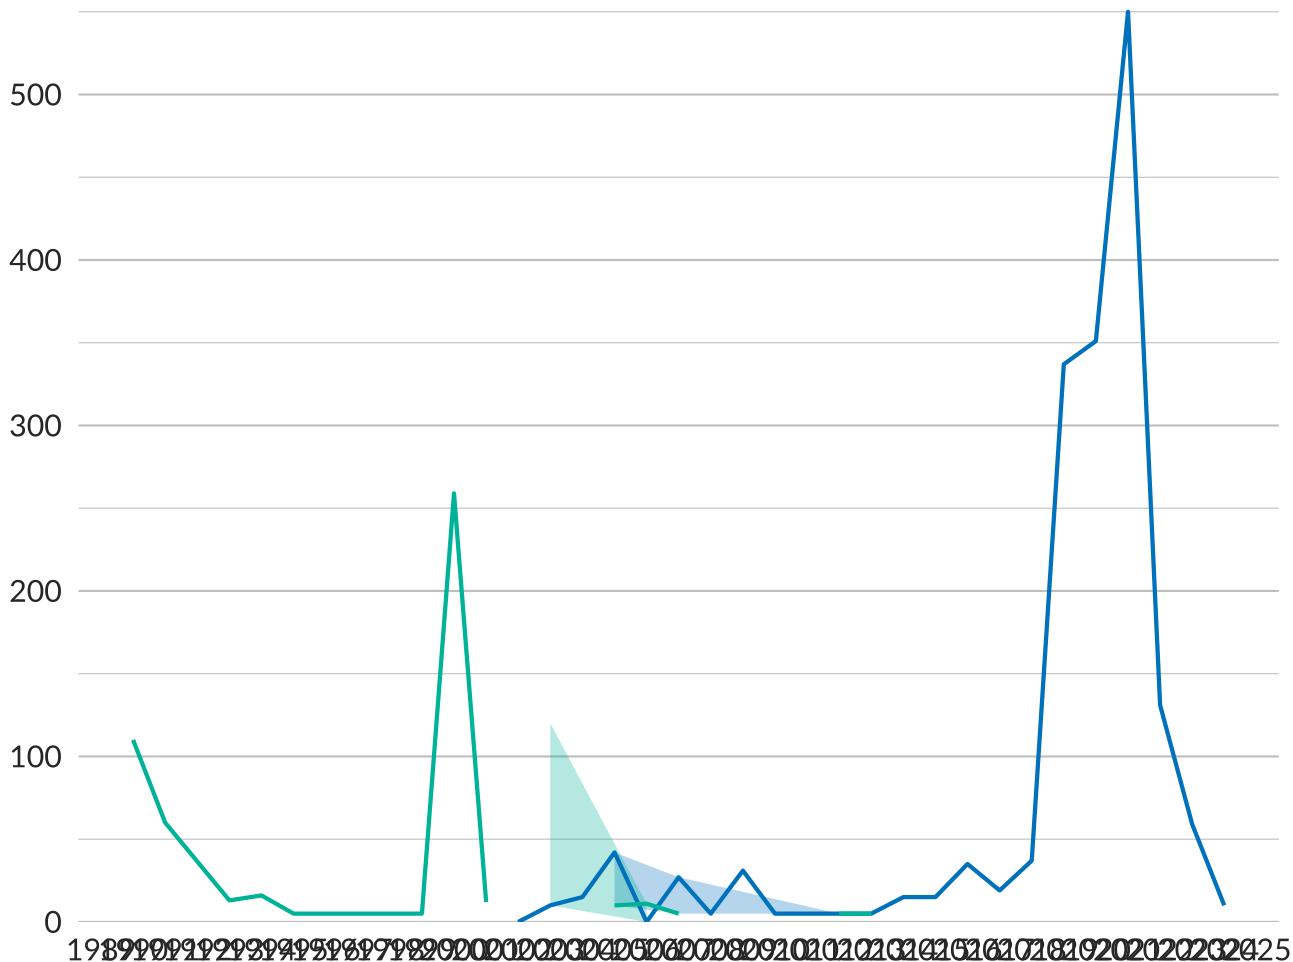

Data for Forcibly Displaced People across Borders as of 2024 filtered for Colombia

Source: UNHCR.org/refugee-statistics. Resettlement â€“ in this context this is the country of arrival â€“ i.e. the country to which a refugee has been resettled Returns â€“ in this context this is the country of departure â€“ i.e. the country from which a refugee has voluntarily repatriated.

How do refugee recognitions^a compare with available solutions^b

Data for Colombia as of 2024

Source: UNHCR.org/refugee-statistics (a) Refugee recognition refers to the legal process through which an individual is granted refugee status by a country's government. (b) Refugee solutions includes returns, i.e. departure to country of origin, resettlement to a third country and naturalization.

Population of Concern in Colombia

As of 2024, a total of 10,650,000 Individuals

